LOSES HIS OWN LIFE. Millville, N. J.-Harry H. Hines, 50 years old, was drowned while rescuing Mrs. A. Y. Peck and her laughter, who were bathing in Goff's Lake, near Clayville. Hines, who was sitting on the bank watching the bathers, heard the cry for help and, rushing to the other side of the lake, saw Mrs. Peck and her daughter with arms folded about each other sinking. Without removing his clothing or shoes he plunged into the water and, pulling the women to surface by the hair of their heads, attempted to assist them to a shallow place, when he was stricken with heart trouble and sank.
